JEFFERSON PARK HOTEL, July 15.—

A german Monday evening, progressiva euchra Thursday, Polk Miller Tuesday and Wednesday, and Dr. Currell in a lecture on the Inferno on Friday evening, have constituted the evening diversions of the past week at this hotel. Some of the most popular belies at the german were Misses Willcox, Price, Frayser, Birdsong, Philips and Farinholt, of Richmond; Louise De Witt, of New York; Collier and Foster, of Hampion, and Mary Lockhart, of Augusta, Ga.

The upper lobby of the hotel presented, quite a brilliant spectacle on Thursday evening, the occasion being a progressive euchre party. The game was spirited from start to finish, and the close result showed well matched contestants. Among the players were Professor and Mrs. W. Black, of Chicago; Professor and Mrs. Austin C. Apgar, of Trenton, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parr, Slaunton; Mr. and Mrs. Austin C. Apgar, of Trenton, N. J.; Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Parr, Slaunton; Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Barker, Chicago; Mrs. F. L. Miss Louise De Witt, of New York, is one of the most attractive and charming young ladies here. Miss 'De Witt comes of one of the oldest and most exclusive New York families. She is an elecutionist of merit and note. For some time past she has been connected in this work with Miss Marie Leahy, formerly of Richmond, now of New York city. They have given many entertainments in New York under the auspices of the Daughters of the American Revolution. The Albemarle Chapter of that organization has secured their services for an entertainment to be given on Monday evening. Many guests from the hotel will go over to hear them at the Auditorium.

An attractive set of Richmond ladles sojourning here and attending the School of Methods is Misses Helen M. Hall, Lena M. Duke, Florence E. Duke, Cheadle B. Lawson and Margaret Wood, of Richmond, Va.

NATURAL BRIDGE, VA., July 15.—
During the past week card playing has been among the social features at the Natural Bridge, also driving and horse-back riding, for the excellent livery is ever in demand. The guests have more than enjoyed the delightful walks. Too much cannot be said in praise of Mount Jefferson, which overlooks a wonderful variety and extent of mountain scenery, variety and extent of mountain scenery, like a grand panorama in the distance. No more beautiful sight can be desired than to watch the clouds as they drop than to watch the clouds as they drop below the many peaks of Thunder Mountain, like the rolling of mist in the distance. The macadamized road is one of the favorite walks, for along its sides runs the babbling brook, sometimes lazily, then dashing and leaping over the rocks, making little pools in the bed below, where the barefoot boy instinctively plunges his feet, to "wade just a little while" in its cool waters. What poet or artist ever had a dream without the brook. Here at the Bridge he could dream hours away by its laughing waters.

poet or artist tween as a proper of the brook. Here at the Bridge he could dream hours away by its laughing waters.

A most delightful tally-he party, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Paxton, Miss Paxton, Miss Nell Brockenborough and Miss Annie Champlain, left the Bridge on the morning of the 7th, en route for Clifton Forge, to attend the Hotel Association, which was being held there. They were charmingly entertained that evening by a card' party, at the Gladys Inn, given by Mr. and Mrs. Callahan, the gracious host and hostess leaving nothing undone to make it an ideal eyening.

Such a bright, happy party from Hollins visited the Bridge in their private gar. None this season seemed to have a more enjoyable time, or more appreciative of the orchestra, for applause

CATARRH WHIRL OF PLEASURE A UNIVERSAL DISEASE

A UNIVERSAL DISEASE

Catarri usually begins with a cold in the head, but does not stop there. The inucous membranes all become inflamed and secrete a filthy, unhealthy matter which is absorbed by the blood and distributed to all parts of the body. The patient is then continually hawking and spitting, the nose is stopped up, the terrs have a ringing or buzzing noise, the throat becomes sore, and as the inhealthy matter more thoroughly saturates the blood a general feeling of despondency takes possession of the system.

I had Catarrh for about fifteen years, and no man could have been worse. I tried everything I could hear or, but no good resulted. I then began 8. 8. 8., and could see a little improvement from the first bottle, and after taking it a short while was cured. This was six yours ago, and I am as well today as any man. I think Catarrh is a blood discase, and know thore is nothing on earth better for the blood than 8. 8. 8. No-body thinks more of S. 8. 5. than I do. Lapeer, Mich. M. MATSON.

Lapser, Mich. M. MATSON.

Local applications cannot cure Catarri, because they do not reach the seat of the trouble. They allay the inflammation and temporarily relieve the disease, but as soon as they are left off the trouble returns. The only way to cure Catarrh is to treat it through the blood. S. S. soon clears the blood of all Catarrhal matter and purges it of all irritating poisons, checks further progress of the trouble and completely cures the disease. S. S. S. keeps the blood in perfectorders that it can eliminate from the system

The blood in perfect orders of that it can eliminate from the system all waste matter that will produce Catarrh.

Among the guests at the Bridge last week was a pleasant automobile party, of Mr. and Mrs. George E. House, their brother, Mr. W. House, of Wheeling, W. Va. They were delighted with the Bridge, and Mr. W. House expects to spend part of the month of August here. The following charming party, under the chaperonage of Mr. Davis Ayres. Salem, Va., were guests at the Bridge last week: Miss Emma Ayres, Balem, Va., a fascinating blonde; Miss Irene Strayer, Harrisonburg, Va., a pretty brunette. The gallant young men were Mr. A. H. Ayres, Roanoke, Va., and Mr. R. E. McCabe, Leesburg, Va. After spending the day roaming through the glen and park, the evening found the young ladies, beautifully dressed, in the dancing hall, where the merry party whiled away the hours in the mazy waltz.

The following are registered guests at the Bridge; Mr. A. C. Yuelle, Lynchburg, Ya.; Mr. Thomas E. Watson, Georgia; Mr. John A. Sibley, Georgia; Mr. John A. Ribley, Georgia; Mr. John A. A DOMINO GERMAN.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)

COVINGTON, VA., July 15.—The most novel entertainment of this season was the dance given by the young ladies of the town to their young men friends at the Intermont Hotel, Thursday night. In every respect the affair was conducted at a lenp-year party. The ladies called for the gentlemen in carriages and at the german asked for the dances. During the darily part of the evening the ladies wore dominos and masks, thus making it difficult for the gentlemen to distinguish their fair escorts.

Some of the ladies wore black dominos and the others were red ones, making a very odd color effect.

Some of the ladies wore black dominos and the others were red ones, making a very odd color effect.

Music was furnished by a local order of the dance many people were present as and refreshments were served in a room adjoining the ballroom.

In addition to those taking part in the dance many people were present as the ladies giving the dance had been very liberal with their intitations.

Popular Resort Doing Twice the Business of Former Ycars.

(Special to The Times-Dispatch.)
OCEAN VIEW, VA., July 15.—The popular Ocean View Hotel, which is controlled by Charles H. Consolvo, who is probably interested in hotel operations in a greater extent than any other boniface in the South, is having a run that makes all former seasons suffer in comparison. It is nothing unusual for Mr. Consolvo to take care of from 150 to 200 guests a day. On Tuesday and Wednesday alone there were 125 people from one city, Tarboro, N. C., registered at the house. Bo thoroughly has Mr. Consolvo perfected his arrangements for the season that he is at all times prepared to take cure of the heaviest kind of a demand on his dining hall. He is giving here the same excellent cuisine that his been an important factor in the success of his management of the Monitcello Hotel in Nortolk.

Richmond hus been in evidence all the week fit the hotel. Among the arrivals are: M. Ashby Jones and Mrs. Jones, R. D. Morgan, C. B. Wales, S. M. Bowman, Lee Reinheimer, H. S. Benservanger, Mrs. Benservanger and two children, W. T. Gresset, J. C., Gresset, J. T. Allen, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Allen, Mrs. Milen, Mrs. Mi and musicales have kept the wheel in motion.

Jake Wells spent two days here early in the week. He closed a contract will Louis DeLange for the appearance of the latter's company on the summer and winter circuits controlled by Mr. Wells, taking the place of the old Bljou Company and presenting Weber-Field burlesques. The company earne here from Syracuse, where it played ten weeks. It will open Monday at the Casino in "Pousse Cafe" and will their go to Richmond. The guests at the hotel find the theater one of the most interesting attractions here.

KEEPING A HEART.

By ARTHUR WILLIAM EDGAR O'SHAUGHNESSY.

Other selections from this author, his portrait; autograph; and biographical sketch, yo already been printed in this series.

F one should give me a heart to keep, With love for the golden key, The giver might live at ease or sleep; It should ne'er know pain, be weary, or weep, The heart watch'd o'er by me.

I would keep that heart as a temple fair, No heathen should look therein; Its chaste marmoreal beauty rare I only should know, and to enter there I must hold myself from sin.

I would keep that heart as a casket hid Where precious jewels are ranged, A memory each: as you raise the lid, You think you love again as you did Of old, and nothing seems changed

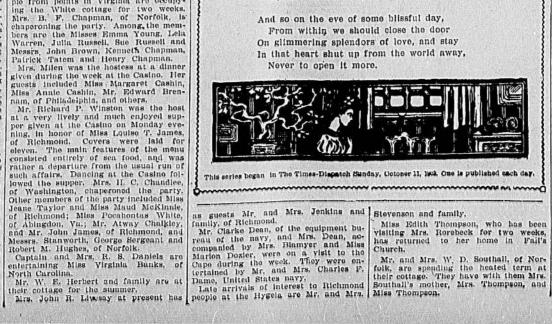

How I should tremble day after day, As I touched with the golden key, Lest aught in that heart were changed, or say That another had stolen one thought away And it did not open to me.

But ah, I should know that heart so well, As a heart so loving and true, As a heart that I held with a golden spell, That so long as I changed not I could foretell That heart would be changeless, too.

I would keep that heart as the thought of heaven To dwell in a life apart,

My good should be done, my gift be given, In hope of the recompense there; yea, even My life should be led in that heart,

And so on the eve of some blissful day,
